

POWER-PACKED prayer potions

By Maria

FD/MM/FM 3670 8/07

Dearest Family,

I love you! Our Husband has generously provided some “power-packed prayer potions,” which are similar to the “key prayer phrases” that were published in the “Brazil National Prayer Day 2003” GN (ML #3456). Some of them are petitions, others are statements about the Lord’s amazing abilities and His powerful keys, and others are directed specifically at the Enemy, rebuking him and his hoodlums in no uncertain terms.

When you think of the word “potion,” you probably think of something that is either medicinal, magical, or poisonous. And that’s exactly what these power-packed prayer potions are designed by our Husband to do, as you claim them and use them in prayer—to bring miracles and answers and solutions to you, as well as death and destruction to the Enemy and his ilk.

We’re making these available to you to be used as a prayer aid during the prayer drive—to use in the beginning of your prayers, or throughout, or as a closing. So please feel free to use them in whatever way the Lord leads you to. And we hope that you will be able to use them again and again in the future.

They are faith-building, empowering, and command action! I love them! I pray that they will provide some variety in your prayer meetings, and help your prayers to reach their full potential as you prepare the way in the spirit for the great witnessing and winning offensive of the future!

Love in our Keeper of the Keys,
Mama

GENERAL

1. The power of the keys that we hold in our hands can stop time and shred even the very fabric of the universe! Nothing can stop the force of the keys.

2. We praise You, our sweet Husband, for Your never-ending source of key power, and that all of Heaven is at our command.

3. Key power reminds Satan and his ilk of what they forsook when they fell. Key power causes them to lose their confidence and cower in fright.

4. The keys will bring the battle into focus. The keys will concentrate their power where it will do the most good and have the biggest effect.

5. The keys will blow away the fog of irrelevant issues, revealing the core of the problem, which can then be conquered through focused key power.

6. We open the gates to Your unlimited reservoir. We unleash all the power of Heaven to fight on our behalf. We know we can win through the keys and their power!

7. The keys will neutralize any enemy. The keys will conquer every obstacle. The keys will unlock the solution for every problem. The keys are Your sovereign power, given unto us, Your brides.

8. The keys are a superior force! Through them, all power is given unto us.

9. We thank You for the key power You've given, which guarantees us victory in any battle! They more than amply respond to Satan's challenges.

10. The day of miracles is not past. In fact, it's about to begin in greater power—through key power. History is being written through the power of the keys, which we wield today.

11. Prayer is powerful! The keys are powerful! Together they form an invincible entity which spells out Satan's demise. We defeat him now with this power!

12. Through the key power vested in us, we command that this obstacle be moved out of the way immediately!

13. Our faith in You is unflinching. We command You to unleash Your mighty wrath and righteous judgment upon the hordes of Satan. Bring them down!

14. We believe in Your key power explicitly. With great excitement and anticipation, we look forward to Satan's defeat and our triumphant victory!

15. The keys are not only for our benefit, but for Yours. We praise You that Your will is destined to come to pass no matter what. Nothing can stop what You have ordained.

16. It's the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing. We praise You for the undefeatable, unbounded, unmatched key power, which we put to work right now in the spirit world.

17. We praise You, our great and mighty God, for the keys of goodness and Your wonderful works to the children of men.

18. We unleash the key of lightning to destroy the attacks of the Enemy.

19. When we're equipped with key-powered eyeglasses, they will direct us in the spirit so that we can aim accurately at the Devil and blast him to smithereens.

20. Armed with the Word of God, keys in hand, wielding the weapon of prayer, nothing can withstand us.

21. We call upon the power of the keys to unleash their fury through the Wildcats of Heaven. The Enemy screams in terror, knowing that his end is sealed. With Heaven on our side, we will continue to march ahead and gain victories.

22. The keys have created an impenetrable force field of protection around us! We are surrounded by the keys. There is nothing that can infiltrate our spiritual atmosphere. So don't you even try, Satan!

23. Marching into battle, we lift the keys high above our heads as banners. The keys will give us courage! The keys will give us faith! The keys will give us victory!

24. One burst of key power is mightier than all the villains of Hell. So blast away, Jesus! Key power will decimate the Evil One and will set us up for glorious victory!

25. There is great power in the keys, and there is great power in prayer. When we mix these two powers together, the result is an explosive, dynamic weapon of key-powered prayer. This energy is strong enough to hurl us over any obstacle, get us through any storm, and give us wings to rise above any difficulty. Thank You, Jesus, for doing it!

26. Jesus, by the power vested in us through the keys, we command Your hand to take action. Remove any sniveling demons who are trying to hinder Your work, and thrust us forward to greater victories!

27. We praise and glorify You, our wonderful Love, and know that with Your power the victory is assured. You and Your keys are infallible!

28. Damn you, Satan! Damn you, Evil One. We hold the keys in our hands, and thus you are puny and powerless. Our Love has promised us full victory, and so shall it be done. You and your hooligans will cower in defeat as we brandish the power of the keys.

29. The power of the keys is power enough to alter any situation. We “alter” you, Satan. You have no place here. We mark this territory for Jesus. Now, begone!

30. We cannot fail because the keys of _____ [name of keys] are in our hands, and they will destroy all the static of the Enemy as we activate them!

31. We claim the key of praise to strike terror into the heart of the Enemy. We claim the key of fight to overcome him. We claim the key of victory to help us rest assured in the victory already won. And we claim the key of intimate love to keep our connection with You strong.

32. We call on the key craft—our cloud by day, our pillar of fire by night—to safely guide and protect us as we march forward, claiming territory in Your name.

33. The battle rages and the fight is on, but the power of the keys will see us through the darkest night and into the brightest day. Let them empower us, Jesus! Make things happen in the spirit world today!

34. The words conquest, victory, and triumph are our creed. With keys in hand, we stand strong, and the Enemy stands down.

35. No matter how fierce the battle, no matter how strongly the Enemy attacks, no matter how bleak the outlook may seem, as we keep our eyes focused on the keys, we will win. Victory is ours for the taking!

36. The key of spiritual sight will cut through the barricades of Satan, pinpoint his weaknesses, and fire the hell out of him.

37. Right here, right now, we unite around key power, expecting miracles!

38. We are weak. We are nothing, but in our hands we hold the biggest, “baddest,” and most powerful keys. We invoke their magnificent power and will enjoy watching you hightail it out of here, Satan! Now beat it, punk!

39. All of Heaven is here at our side. You, Satan, have got nothing! We unleash the dynamic keys of _____ [name of keys]; nothing can stop us now! This is where you get off!

40. Here we stand, depending on You and You alone, our Lover. Using these keys that You have given us, we exact fear, chaos, and total defeat on the puny army of Satan.

41. We have failed, others have failed, but You and the keys of _____ [name of keys] have never failed. We thank You that we can rely on You so completely.

42. Satan, you picked the wrong fight when you took us on. You're going to get knocked down and stay down, while Jesus, the referee, counts you out and yells, "You're outta here," and the crowd cheers! That's what you have to look forward to, Satan, as we knock you out and down with the keys! You won't even be able to get up!

43. All power is given to us as we use the keys, and we will not hesitate to claim this power now to bring your demise, you demons!

44. Dearest Lord and King, we look not to the left, nor to the right. We look solely to You and Your invincible keys to do the impossible.

45. We see the force and power of the elements of this world—the wind that blows, the rain that falls, the lightning that strikes, the thunder that roars—and we are reminded of the far greater force and power that we hold in our hands through the keys, to work change, claim miracles, and wreak havoc and destruction on the Enemy! We use them now to do just that.

46. Though the Devil may look like a Goliath, our seemingly little key will be his downfall. He overestimates himself. The keys give us the upper hand.

47. Satan, you have no power over those who hold the keys in their hearts. That's us. And you are about to be defeated!

48. With the power of the keys at our sides, we launch a full-scale attack. Victory is ours! Victory is assured!

49. With the keys, we're not just another army—we're conquerors! We're winners!

50. The keys give us power to squash the Devil like a worm. He's nothing, minute, inconsequential, and helpless!

51. The keys torment and torture,
The keys smash and destroy
Every devil and demon,
And each of Satan's plots.

The keys won't be defeated,
The keys will always rule,
They will take him out,
They will turn him into a fool.

52. The keys are more powerful than any of the most sophisticated weapons of men; with their power, all Heaven is at our command.

53. There is nothing too big or too complicated for the keys! We call on them now for the answer that we need and desire.

54. The keys torment and torture the Devil. So we use them now to make the Enemy suffer and flee.

55. The Enemy cannot resist the power and light of the keys; he must flee or be destroyed. So blind him now, Jesus! Send him back to Hell where he belongs!

56. Here we stand, on the power of the keys of Heaven! Vanish and be gone, you demons of Hell, you enemies of light! You are unwelcome!

57. The darkness of the Enemy, as powerful as it may seem, is no match for the power of the keys. So we use them now to destroy and annihilate the powers of darkness.

58. Although we may not see the answer to this prayer come to pass immediately, we know beyond a shadow of a doubt that the victory is on its way! The keys command action! The keys guarantee the answer!

59. With the key of faith we open the treasure chest of Your miracles! The Devil cannot deny us access; he can't stop Your power that will bring us the answers we need.

60. We stand with our spirit helpers, claiming the Devil's defeat! He will be hard pressed to dodge the rocks we're flinging at him with our catapult of key-power punishment.

61. Jesus, we thank You for Your keys, and we put them to work on our behalf to fight our nemesis. We defy that sickening Satan and his wily wimps! Put them in their place! Defeat them, dear Love!

62. We call on the keys, unlock the door of the spirit world, and let the tanks out onto Enemy territory, squashing everything in their path.

63. We praise and thank You for Your miracles—past, present, and future. With great anticipation, we look forward to the ingenious way that You will respond to this request.

64. As we pray this prayer, we activate the keys to go before us, to drain the Devil's moat of resistance, to smash the walls of opposition, to crash the gates of Hell, to blast the obstacles to bits, and to seize the victory!

65. Cheer us on, O heavenly courts, and send your fastest runners to perform at our behest, for we have called on the keys—the power that our Husband has given us.

66. The keys will tear you to bits, _____ [name of demon]! I call on the key of _____ [name of key] to pulverize you!

67. Defeat is not an option for the key of _____ [name of key]. We claim it now for this task.

68. Ching, ching, ching. What's that sound? Ahhhh, the keys of _____ [name of keys] are in the house. Nothing can stop them!

69. What did you say, _____ [name of demon]? Oh, you want to mess with me? Well, check out this storm of key power coming your way. You don't stand a chance. Get ready for defeat.

70. We send this key lightning bolt into the backside of _____ [name of demon]!

71. We stand strong behind this wall of key power. It won't budge an inch and will wreak havoc on anyone who tries to break through it.

72. We have the key of _____ [name of key] and we're not afraid to use it. You think I'm kidding, Satan? Well, just watch and see. We unleash the keys against you and all your strongholds.

73. We shine the light of Your key power into the dark crevices of the underworld, and melt away the opposition of any devils who are trying to stop or hinder Your plan.

74. We resist the Devil through calling on the keys of the Kingdom, and we don't doubt for a minute that he will flee from us.

75. Key power is unstoppable! There is no force that can stand against that kind of power, so we wield it in full faith.

76. Calling on the Name of Jesus and the power of the keys is a winning combination! So cower in fright, demons, because we are more powerful than you! You have already lost.

77. We will win in every battle, and rise above every obstacle, because we're the Bride of Christ. You, Jesus, have given into our hands all the power of the universe through the keys, which we use right now in this battle!

78. We are more than conquerors through the power of the keys! We send them forth now to do mighty things in the spirit world!

79. We will not quit wielding the keys for this situation until we see the victory, because we know that through them, victory is sure.

80. Praise be to You, our Lover and King, Who has empowered us with these mighty keys that know no foe. We activate them now to overpower everything in their path. The keys are victorious!

81. The keys command action! We activate them to do Your will, which is _____ [state request]. No force can stand in the way now. The keys rule!

82. The keys are our first offensive against the Enemy; they are not our last resort. We trust in You and Your power completely!

83. The keys are samurai swords in the spirit. We wield them skillfully, slashing the Enemy left, right, and dead-center.

84. Satan is afraid; we've merely reached into our pocket for the keys, and his look of aggression has suddenly changed to that of uncertainty and fright. We're going to use them now to bring his defeat.

85. That's right, Satan! You heard the jingling of keys. We've got them, and we're pulling them out. We claim the key of _____ [name of key] to bring about your downfall and our triumphant victory.

86. We're going to pull out our biggest, "baddest" weapon—the key of _____ [name of key]—to defeat you, you puny little weakling, _____ [name of hinderer]. We're going to blow you to bits!

87. Is that the best that you can do, Devil? Is that all, Satan? It's our turn now! We call on the key of _____ [name of key]. Now you'll see who's in charge!

88. Jesus, we have chosen You as our Lord and Husband. We have Your power and authority over Heaven, Earth, and Hell. So we claim that key power for _____ [state request].

89. We're going to use praise and the keys together as a weapon to obliterate the Enemy's influence! All-powerful Jesus, we call on the key of _____ [name of key] to _____ [state request]. BANG! Bull's eye! It is done.

90. We proclaim Your Name, and all Hell trembles at the sound. We wield the keys, and demons flee. We praise, and victory is at hand.

91. We take Your promise, we call on the keys, and we make a stand. Demons tremble and shake, for we will not let up till the victory is ours.

92. Precious Husband, You won the ultimate victory 2,000 years ago through Your sacrifice on that lonely hill. You conquered death, and through that gave us eternal life. So here we stand, unafraid of anything that the Devil may try to hurl at us. We hold the champion's cup, the winner's laurel, and the power of the keys in our hands. The greatest victory has already been won on our behalf, and the Enemy has no power over us who are bought with the blood of the Lamb.

93. There is no victory for the Enemy. There is no possibility of our defeat. There is no middle ground. Here we stand through the power of the keys of revolution, dedication, and discipleship. We can do no other.

94. You—the Giver of all life, Creator of all things—hold our destiny within the palm of Your hands. What a simple thing, then, to beseech You to work on our behalf.

95. Nothing is unattainable for us, as we wield the key of miracles, which looses the power of God to come to our rescue!

96. With the keys of the Kingdom in our hands and the Word of God in our hearts, we cannot lose! We will overcome all evil, all opposition, and all obstacles!

97. The Devil's monsters are no match for the keys! We wield the keys turned to swords and send the Enemy fleeing in terror!

98. We can climb any mountain, ford any river, go to any depth, and get through any obstacle because we have the keys which never fail.

99. We turn our battles into stepping stones to greater heights, and the forces that try to hinder us are but wax figures that we melt with sizzling key power.

100. We're putting our faith into action now by calling on the keys. We will then proceed as if possessing.

101. It doesn't matter how big or bad the obstacle is. There is no force stronger than the keys, and nothing can stand against them—that truth is irrefutable. Unleash that power to work for us now, dear Love!

(Mama:) After reading these power-packed prayer potions, you may wonder how we can literally “defeat the Enemy,” as some of these statements or petitions declare. Here is an explanation the Lord gave us, which was published in the “The Art of War, Part 2”:

One question that has come up is what the Lord means when He says that your prayers and praises “obliterate,” “destroy,” and “annihilate” the Enemy. We know that Satan's demons have a part to play, so we're not going to be able to wipe them all out or permanently destroy them. Later on, the Lord will cast Satan and his demons into the Lake of Fire, to remain for a long time, or until they repent, or whatever the Lord sees fit. But until then, it doesn't seem like we can permanently ban them from coming around or permanently get rid of them.

So we have several times asked the Lord what He means when He says we have power to destroy them or obliterate them. He has explained that when He says that, He means that we are destroying their power, we're obliterating them from the area around us, and in that sense we have won total victory right then. Depending on how great the defeat is for them, we sometimes even have a little rest in the spirit before they regroup and attack again—or sometimes we have to face another attack right away.

Our prayers and praises are powerful, and have the power to silence the attack, completely cut off the Enemy's power, and send him screaming in defeat, but they don't completely and permanently destroy the demons, because the Lord is allowing them to continue to serve His purpose. So when the Lord uses words like “eradicate,” “devastate,” etc., in regards to what we can do to the Enemy, He's referring to the effect we have on the Enemy's power that he's trying to use against us, not necessarily that we are permanently destroying the demons themselves. Most of you have probably come to that conclusion already, but since I had the question, I figured some of you might have it too, and so I wanted to share the Lord's answer with you. (ML #3533:294–296, GN 1131)

102. We call on the key of enhanced spiritual vision to see the Enemy and his sleazeballs as clear targets, as we use the keys as weapons to destroy him.
